Citizens National Bank 219 Fourth St. (W corner of 4th & Market Sts.) 92-61

Sited on a commercial lot and flanked by 2 smaller commercial buildings, this 5 story Classical structure measures 3 bays by 1 (9 by 3). It is crowned by a metal rooftop balustrade and a modillion cornice. The 5th story windows, d/s, rest on a sill course/cornice and are separated by recessed panels. The 2nd through 4th stories read as a single colossal system, each bay containing a round arch flanked by two flat arches; the windows are d/s and the spandrels are recessed panels; swags drape above the 4th story windows. On the 1st story, brick pilasters with stone capitals support an entablature; the SW entranceway, the most intact 1st story feature, is arched with flanking engaged columns, banded stonework, and a large foliated cartouche. The corners and bays are defined by quoins; in addition, the central arch on each facade is banded.
