10. SIGNIFICANCE (use additional sheet if necessary):

a. Architect/Builder/Engineer:

UNKNOWN

b. Style/Period: Bungalowoid

c. Date(s): c. 1925

This home is significant not only for its fine design and structure but as a component of the old Cox/Morton estate on Holley Road.

Essentially an elaborated bungalowoid cottage with reference to the Prairie School, the house's clean white stucco and green tile make an interesting contrast and give it a more graceful appearance than the Cox's old "Home Hill". A double entrance and flanking double windows are housed by a recessed porch. The eyebrow ventor dormer breaks the expanse of the central low pitched hipped roof. The cornice extends beyond the wall and roof.
