

Volume 47, Number 3 Fall 2021

On the cover: Al Leonard, Hampshire County, 2018. Photo by Lisa Elmaleh of Paw Paw (Morgan County). To view more of her work, see our Summer 2015 issue or visit www.lisaemaleh.com.

Published by the
STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

Jim Justice, Governor

Randall Reid-Smith, Curator
Department of Arts, Culture and History

Stan Bumgardner, Editor

Joseph Aluise, Assistant Editor

Jacob Hall Design, Publication Design

2 From the Editor

5 West Virginians' Creative Responses to COVID-19

By Emily Hilliard

6 The Ghost at the Swinging Bridge

By Patsy A. Reckart

8 GOLDENSEAL Good-Byes

10 Al Leonard: Hampshire County's Centenarian Trapper

By Laiken Blankenship

16 Life Goes on in Helvetia: Eleanor Fahrner Mailloux's Legacy Endures

By Alan Byer

22 The Beauty of Ballet: Passing It On

By Edwina Pendarvis

28 Beckley Violin Maker: John Tutterway

By Chris Haddox

34 Jerry Lewis: The Real Thing
By Anne M. Johnson

38 A Nightmare on Braxton Street: The 1936 Tar Barrel Explosion
By H. R. Cogar

42 "October is my favorite color": Remembering Widen
By John E. Allen

48 Remembering the Lonesome End: How West Virginia's High Schools Copied Red Blaik's Playbook 63 Years Ago
By Jerry Bruce Thomas

52 Memories of Osborne's Store
By Julian Martin

55 "I never considered it work": The Stone Man of Kingmont
By Gary West

60 La Mano Nero: The Black Hand in West Virginia
By Jeff DeBellis

66 Octopus's Garden in the Blackwater
By Aaron Parsons

68 Three Doctors Go to Battle: Surgeons-Turned-Soldiers in the Civil War
By David McCormick

72 The Gaujot Brothers
By Samantha Riggin

78 Was President William McKinley's Assassin from Charleston?
By Larry Shockley

84 West Virginia Back Roads—Pickin' Pumpkins at Old McDonald's: Visiting a Historic Berkeley County Farm
By Carl E. Feather