

We appreciate your cooperation in:

- Walk, rather than drive, between campsites.
- RV generators may not be used in the upper lot next to the stage. Generators may be used in the lower lot only.
- No fires allowed.
- Wash dishes in designated areas only.
- Observe safety rules: No bicycles, skateboards, rollerblades, ATVs, etc., may be used on the mountaintop.
- Alcoholic beverages and weapons are prohibited.
- The Festival reserves the right to ask anyone who exhibits disruptive behavior to leave the festival without a refund.
- We are not responsible for lost or stolen items.

Camp Sites:

- Please be advised If you move your car from your camp site, the Department of Arts, Culture and History cannot guarantee the availability of your space upon return.
- Suggestion: If you need to leave the camp during the festival you need to permanently park your car at the bottom of the hill and take the shuttle up and down.

Dog policies:

- All dogs must always be on a 6' maximum leash. Extendable leashes are not acceptable.
- Dogs that need to eliminate, please do so in areas not used by the public. Please always clean up after your dog.
- Doggie bags can be located at the box office, main office and Information Booth.
- Dogs are allowed up on the hill only on a 6' leash. Please be respectful of other camp sites and make sure your dog doesn't quickly eliminate, bark continuously, or disrupt other camp sites, tents, people sleeping, playing music, eating, etc. Dogs are not to run free at any time.
- Please mind your dog's unconditional curiosity and protectiveness toward and around other people and other dogs. Remember that this is foreign territory for your dog, and they will always be on their guard.
- For the health and safety of your dog please do not leave your animal chained up, unattended in crates, automobiles, campers, corrals and/or banjo cases at your campsite.
- The staff can recommend a veterinarian or kennels in the area if you need one.
- The festival reserves the right to ask anyone who doesn't follow our dog policy to leave the camp without a refund.
